

Claros Diagnostics named to “Windhover’s A-List; 2007’s Trend Shaping Series A Financings”

The Series A investment in Claros Diagnostics was highlighted as one of 14 “Trend Shaping Series A Financings” in 2007 (Start-Up, Jan 2008, Windhover Information Inc.). Over $1.5B was raised in Series A financings in 2007, encompassing over 120 companies in biopharma, diagnostics and medical devices in 2007. The management and investors in Claros considers the recognition by Windover as a reflection of the disruptive nature and bandwidth of the company’s technology and the increased interest in the diagnostics space.
